THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Established 1872

SHELTON M. SAUFLEY, Publisher

51 A YEAR STRICTLY IN ADVANCE

Entered at the postoffice at Stanford as second class mail.

Democratic Ticket.

For Lieut. Governor—E. J. McDermott.

For Secretary of State—C. F. Creel.
For Attorney General—James Garnett.
For Auditor—H. M. Bosworth.
For State Superintendent of Schools—Barksdale Hamlett.
For Commissioner Agriculture—J. W. Newman.

For Railroad Commissioner—W. F. Blair.
For Circuit Judge—Charles A. Hardin.
For Representative—W. H. Slanks.

Discussing the machinations of the lobby or Third House at Frankfort, Judge O'Rear said in a recent speech: "For 11 years I have served you in an office at Frankfort. I have been there in that capitol. I have seen these things going on. Yet he was unable to see or hear of the corruption in the election of Bradley to the Senate, the most notorious work of the lobby in a score of years."

Secretary of State, Ben L. Bruner was acting governor last week, both Gov. Willson and Lieut. Gov. Cox being out of the state, and off their jobs. Yet the pay from the people goes on just the same. And O'Rear endorses this.

The Somerset Journal has discarded its patent inside and appeared this week as all home print. We congratulate Editor Carter on the improvement. We know several other papers that would be greatly helped by following its example.

The E-town Newssays nine-tenths of the cases in the Police-court at Elizabethtown are for bootlegging. Stanford would be satisfied to get a bootlegging case in court occasionally.

"O'REAR JUST ANOTHER HERO."

(Composed by Lawrence B. Finn, with apologies to author of Casey Jones.)

"Larry B. Finn, of Franklin, Democratic member of the Kentucky Railroad Commission, besides being a wit and fiddler, is also 'some' composer of doggerel as witness the following offense: Come all you voters if you want to hear, About the campaign of Judge O'Rear If he's elected, you'll be to blame; At the Phoenix Hill Convention, boys he won his fame.

O'Rear walked in at the convention door, Everybody "hollered" and began to roar, Caleb Powers waved his hand—flags began to float, Most everybody there was as full as a goat.

CHORUS.

Caleb Powers waved his hand, Caleb Powers—Flags began to float, Caleb Powers waved his hand, Most everybody there was as full as a goat.

SECOND SPASM.

Bill Bradley was there to hear every word, What the Judge had said, Bradley had heard, At Lexington, the Judge at Bradley took a whack; But Bradley said the Judge would have to take it back.

The Judge began to speak and as he spoke, Everybody knew what he said was a joke, Bradley was elected without a single sou; "Twas the purest election that I ever knew."

CHORUS.

Bradley's election, without a single sou; Bradley's election—"purest I ever knew," Bradley's election without a single sou.

"Great God!" said the woodcock, and away he flew.

THIRD SPASM.

Judge O'Rear said, when McCreary had won, "There are two more races I'd like to run," Caleb said, "what might they be?" O'Rear said "Coroner and School Trustee."

But the Judge's fame will never be forgot; He's almost like a forget-me-not; His virtues will be sung in lasting tones.

He's just another hero like Casey Jones.

CHORUS.

Judge O'Rear just another hero, Judge O'Rear—like Casey Jones, Judge O'Rear just another hero; He's just another hero like Casey Jones.

HOGWALLOW HAPPENINGS

(From Hogwallow Kentuckian.) Luke Mthewsla will soon be seventy years of age. He remembers many incidents of pioneer days principal among them being the last time Poke Easley worked.

Little Fiddy Flinders has started to school at the Wild Onion school house, and to-day surprised the teacher by presenting to him a nice boiled egg.

The postmaster has a new way of catching flies, and is working it with pronounced success at the post office this week. He takes a jug that has had licker in it, places a funnel in the neck and drives the flies in. Then when they come staggering out he swats them with the stove shovel.

Fletcher Henstep has drawn the color line on the feathered tribe, and will not allow a blackbird to come on his farm.

Miss Hostetter Hooks sang a solo at the party the other night. She was cheered heartily by several of her near relatives.

Miss Cordelia Hellwanger has bought a handsome accordion and will compete with Miss Rosyolo Mosley for musical honors and social esteem. She says she can play any piece of poetry ever written, whether it rhymes or not.

Jefferson Potlocks took his family to Tickville one day last week had the picture artist to take them in a group. The family was so large the photographer had to write "over" on the bottom of the picture.

A hand organ has been added to the Excelsior Fiddling Band. It was stolen from a blind man at Tickville last week by Raz Barlow.

Frisby Hancock is greasing his wagon, carrying his team and making other preparations to make a trip to Tickville after a spool of thread. It is now on sale there at a bargain sale of four cents a spool while the Hogwallow postmaster holds his price at five cents.

The mail carrier encountered a swarm of yellow jackets on the Gimble creek road the first of the week and as a consequence he came into Hogwallow several hours ahead of time.

DEATH OF LITTLE EARL HOLLARS.

Earl, the pretty little two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hollars died on Sunday September, 10, at the home of his grand parents, W. M. Gibson near Bronston where they had gone on Saturday for a visit. The little child was taken sick Saturday night and died Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents over the loss of their baby boy.

He was a bright little child and all who knew him loved him. He leaves a father and mother and a little brother to mourn his loss.

One precious to their hearts has gone. A voice they loved is still. A place is vacant in their home, which no one else can fill. The golden gates were opened wide; A gentle voice said "come". And angels on the other side welcomed their darling home. Earth has lost one look of gladness. Heaven seems to us more bright, since the spirit of their darling took its happy home ward flight. Earl is gone but not forgotten. Never will his memory fade. Sweetest thoughts will ever hover 'round the little grave where he was laid.
